Equipment Check Out Form for Parents and Children using University of Miami Samsung Tablets

As a part of your study participation in "Piloting Enhanced Pediatric Care for Children with Chronic Condition/Technology Trial" the University of Miami Miller School of Medicine is lending you a university-owned Samsung Tablet. You will be provided this Tablet for the purposes of learning about and managing your or your child's chronic condition. The use of this Samsung Tablet for any other purposes other than the apps and websites already included is strictly prohibited. If you elect to voluntarily withdraw from the study or if you complete the study, you are fully responsible for returning the equipment to the University of Miami staff.

Each Samsung Tablet has been placed in a protective case to reduce possible damage. This case is not waterproof. It is the expectation that you will take care of the Samsung Tablet to the best of your ability including preventing damage, loss, or theft of the Samsung Tablet. If it is suspected that the Samsung Tablet loaned to you has been purposefully damaged and/or stolen, this information will be relayed to local law enforcement for further investigation.

By signing this Samsung Tablet check out form, you hereby agree to the following:

- I will take care of the Samsung Tablet to the best of my ability and store it in a safe place when not in use to prevent possible loss and/or theft.
- I will only use the Samsung Tablet for the purposes of viewing the included apps and websites. I will not use the Samsung Tablet for any other purposes than this.
- Upon completion of my participation in the study (whether that be voluntarily withdrawing from the study or completing the study), I agree to return the Samsung Tablet to the University of Miami staff within 5 business days.
- I understand that if the Samsung Tablet is purposefully damaged or stolen while in my possession that the University of Miami program staff may contact local law enforcement for further investigation of the matter.
- I have read and understand this form. In addition, a UM staff member has answered all questions that I have about this form.
